COMMISSIONER ADELSTEIN TO VISIT SAN FRANCISCO FOR DTV OUTREACH

Visit is Part of Nationwide Tour Focusing on Markets with High Levels of Over-the-Air Television Viewers

Washington, DC – FCC Commissioner Jonathan Adelstein announced he will visit San Francisco, CA, on September 11 to hold two public town hall meetings on the digital television (DTV) transition. He will be joined by Commissioner Rachelle Chong of the California Public Utilities Commission and other dignitaries.

WHO: FCC Commissioner Jonathan Adelstein
WHAT: Public Town Hall on the DTV Transition
WHEN: September 11, 10:30 AM to Noon
WHERE: Self-Help for the Elderly's Geen Mun Center, 777 Stockton St.,
(Stockton and Sacramento) San Francisco, CA

WHO: FCC Commissioner Jonathan Adelstein
WHAT: Public Town Hall on the DTV Transition
WHEN: September 11, 3:00 PM - 4:00 PM
WHERE: Mission Neighborhood Centers
362 Capp St., San Francisco, CA

The FCC identified target television markets for specific DTV outreach, including all those markets in which more than 100,000 households or at least 15% of the households rely solely on over-the-air signals for television reception. The five FCC Commissioners and senior Commission staff will visit these and other markets to raise awareness and educate consumers in the days leading up to the DTV transition on February 17, 2009.

Reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities are available upon request. Include a description of the accommodation you will need with as much detail as possible. Also include a way we can contact you if we need more information. Please provide as much advance notice as possible; last minute requests will be accepted, but may be impossible to fill.
